DESCRIPTION

This quietly located property is ideal for those looking for comfort and nature, with the centre of Gierle within walking distance and surrounding nature reserves nearby. The property has an excellent location, with easy access to the E34 motorway (Antwerp-Eindhoven), the NMBS station of Tielen, the city of Turnhout and various surrounding villages. This makes the property perfectly accessible, while still enjoying the tranquillity of the countryside.

Upon entering the house, you enter a spacious entrance hall that offers direct access to a multifunctional room, which can serve as an office or bedroom. The large living room radiates lots of light thanks to the large windows, allowing you to fully enjoy the view of the lovely front garden. The living room joins the dining room and kitchen which offers a beautiful view of the back garden and is fully equipped with all the necessary appliances, including an oven, microwave, dishwasher, fridge and electric cooker, making it the ideal space for preparing meals. From the kitchen there is access to a practical cellar, a guest toilet, a laundry room and a shower room with sink, for added convenience.

On the first floor, you will find three lovely bedrooms, each of which has fitted wardrobes, providing ample storage space. The spacious bathroom is equipped with a bathtub, a separate shower, a toilet and a double sink.

The attic floor offers a lot of potential. This space could be converted into two additional bedrooms or serve as a multi-purpose room of your choice, such as a hobby room or a playroom. The ability to furnish this space according to your own needs makes this property even more versatile.

Outside, there is a large, enclosed rear garden offering lots of privacy, on a plot of approx. 831 m². The terrace is perfect for enjoying the outdoors and there is a garage, workhouse and a covered terrace for extra comfort. There is also ample parking for several vehicles. In short, this property combines tranquillity, space and the necessary amenities and offers both a pleasant living environment and an excellent location for accessibility and mobility.
