DESCRIPTION

Just 50 metres from Turnhout's charming Grote Markt (Market Square), you will find this well-maintained, bright apartment featuring three bedrooms and a balcony.

Have you always dreamed of living in the vibrant city centre, surrounded by shops, restaurants, art and culture? With public transport just around the corner and all amenities within walking distance, there is no need to rely on your car. Look no further – this could be the perfect apartment for you!

Located on the second floor, also accessible by lift, this attractive apartment offers a bright and cleverly designed layout.

The entrance hall leads to a separate toilet and the first bedroom. The well-equipped kitchen benefits from plenty of natural daylight. The spacious living room opens onto a balcony at the rear, offering lovely views over Tweestorentjesplein.

A separate hallway provides access to two further generously sized bedrooms and a bathroom fitted with a shower and washbasins integrated into a vanity unit. A private storage room in the basement is also included.

Also an excellent opportunity for investors!

In addition to its attractive location and practical layout, this apartment represents an appealing investment opportunity. The property has been occupied by a reliable, long-standing tenant for many years, making it particularly interesting for investors seeking a property with an established tenancy and the possibility of continued rental income.

Purchasing the apartment for personal occupation is also possible.

An attractive combination of a prime central location, comfortable living and excellent investment potential!

For those requiring parking, spaces are regularly available to rent in the immediate vicinity at various price levels.
